

Grace' (from 2 Corinthians 13.13). We experience God in this threefold way because this is how God is – beyond us as the loving ground and goal of life, graciously beside us as our companion in Christ, within and among us in the communion of the Holy Spirit.

So, when we celebrate Trinity Sunday, we picture God not as static and distant, but dynamic and engaging – embracing and renewing all creation. The language of doctrine can be hard to understand, but hymns, songs and prayers take us beyond thinking and understanding. They can help us to realise that the loving communion that lies at the heart of God reaches out to us, through us and beyond us.

an opportunity to invite others into this conversation. The doctrine of the Trinity helps us to realise how our whole heart, soul, and mind should be employed to engage in a relationship with God, to continually seek God's nature.

Results of Justification

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

John 16: 12-15

‘I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.
